

Interhouse Poster Making Competition

Classes: VII- VIII

Date: 24th October 2024

Topic- A Recipe through Traditions

Today, the much-anticipated Interhouse Poster Making Competition for Classes VII and VIII was held, centered around the intriguing theme “A Recipe through Tradition.” The event saw enthusiastic participation from students of all houses, each putting forward their artistic interpretations of the rich traditions that shape our cultural identity.

Through vibrant colors and imaginative designs, students expressed the ways in which customs, rituals, and heritage serve as timeless “recipe” of our past—proof of enduring values and practices handed down through generations. From depictions of festivals and folklore to everyday traditions, each poster showcased a unique perspective on the importance of preserving and celebrating these customs.

The competition not only highlighted the artistic talents of the participants but also deepened their understanding of the role that tradition plays in shaping our collective future. The event concluded with a sense of accomplishment and a deeper appreciation for the traditions that connect us all.

