INVESTITURE CEREMONY CLASS XI- 2024-25

All our dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them

Delhi Public School, Gurgaon held the Investiture Ceremony for Class XI on 30th July, 2024 to invest the newly appointed Student Vice Council. At the advent, Pulkit Sabharwal enthralled the audience with his mellifluous rendition of Indian and Western Classical on the piano. The Ceremony commenced with the School Anthem.

Director Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra welcomed the Guests of Honour, Ms. Sanjoli Arora and Mr. Pranav Agarwal, and recalled how both alumni of the school never shied from staying back and participated in many events simultaneously performing exceedingly well in academics too. She congratulated the newly appointed Vice Student Council and advised them to always be respectful towards elders and peer alike reiterating that respect begets respect. She welcomed the parents and exhorted them to be encouraging and motivating to build their children's confidence and understand their passion. She further reminded them of the last two years of the students' school life and urged them to always support and stand by them. She cautioned the children against letting ego come in their way and urged them to work with dedication and honesty.

The address was followed by a cultural extravaganza, 'Raagmanjari- Kalpana ki Udaan' by the students of senior school, enthralling the audience by their impactful performance.

The Investiture Ceremony began with Ms. Sanjoli Arora administering the oath of office to the House Appointees. In her address, she reminisced of her schooldays and advised the students to follow the path of honesty and kindness. Mr. Pranav Agarwal administered the oath of office to the Club Appointees. He recalled innumerable instances of his time in school and thanked his Alma Mater for always motivating and encouraging him to voice his opinion. The Cultural Appointees were administered the oath of office by Dean, Student Welfare, Ms Sapna Dhawan whereas the Co-scholastic and the Vice Head Council were administered the oath by Director Principal, Ms Aditi Misra.

The ceremony concluded with the vote of thanks by Pratyush Lall and Aarushi Bakshi, the newly appointed Vice Head Council.
