

Prep Talent Show – Panchtantra

The Class Prep students of Delhi Public School, Sector-45, Gurgaon took everyone on a delightful journey through the Panchtantra tales, presenting age-old wisdom with a fresh and vibrant touch!

The talent show began with a melodious performance by the choir, followed by dazzling dances where the little ones, dressed as various animals, enchanted the audience with their adorable moves.

In her address, Director Principal Aditi Ma'am emphasised the importance of the moral values these stories teach us. She also highlighted the significance of routine and regularity in students' lives.

The Chief Guest Ms Amrita Burman, Director Sunbean Schools, applauded the students and teachers for their remarkable efforts. She remarked that the show was a wonderful display of collaboration between students, teachers, and parents.

Class teachers accepted the Graduation Certificates from Amrita Ma'am and Aditi Ma'am, on behalf of the students as they move ahead to the formal stage of learning.

The Offg. Vice Principal, Ms Rati Chugh, proposed the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the teachers and parents for their hard work and support in putting up such a wonderful show.

Panchtantra was a heartwarming display of talent, learning, and joy—one that will be cherished for years to come!
