

RAVI AND SATLUJ HOUSE FUNCTION -SENIOR SCHOOL

उल्लास: Foster, Fortitude, Flourish

The Senior School function of Ravi and Satluj Houses at Delhi Public School, Sec 45, Gurgaon, was a cultural extravaganza held on 23rd January, 2024, in the school auditorium. Embracing the theme of 'Foster, Fortitude, Flourish,' the event aimed to promote values such as joy, exuberance, and a zest for life, encapsulated by the term 'उल्लास', and to emphasise the significance of kindness, generosity and giving, in contrast to the pursuit of greed and self-interest. It reflected a collective quest for the supreme reign of humanity.

The festivities commenced with the acknowledgement of Parent Representatives, followed by a captivating performance of Sanskrit Geet that celebrated the greatness of the world. The Ganesh Vandana further reinforced the thematic essence. A street play unfolded depicting how imagination sparks and transforms thoughts into concepts that shape our world. The analogy of the journey from newspapers to e-newspapers helped portray this thought. The musical rendition and dance drama left a lasting impression, emphasizing that amidst the advancements of the modern world, our core values of humanity remain resilient.

The Director Principal, addressing the gathering, expressed that cultivating joy is achievable through the virtues of courage and compassion. She appreciated the show and encouraged all to spread happiness.

The belief is that today's students will not only adopt but also inspire others with the principles of humanity. The event genuinely demonstrated the commitment to promote positivity and cultivate a strong sense of community within the school.

The culmination of the event included a vote of thanks extended by the House Captains.
