

REPORT-INTER-HOUSE EXTEMPORE COMPETITION, CLASS VII

Delhi Public School, Gurgaon organised an Inter-House Extempore Competition for students of Class VII on 8th May, 2021. The competition, conducted on a virtual platform was judged by Ms. Jenia Chattopadhyay, Senior Faculty, English Department and Ms. Anoushka Chaturvedi Sur, an alumna.

Each House was represented by two participants, who were given a minute each to speak on the topic indicated by the number chosen by them and displayed on the screen. Their combined scores reflected the points awarded to their House. The participants were judged on the basis of content, clarity of thoughts, ability to think out of the box and confidence. The themes were diverse and broached on issues like conservation, global warming, compassion during these unusual times, virtual classes etc. The event was also graced by Ms. Shalini Arora, Headmistress, Middle School, Ms. Mamta Kanti Kumar, Deputy Dean, Student Welfare.

Jamuna House represented by Nookala Geethika and Charvi Sehgal was adjudged the winner. Ganges and Chenab House bagged the second and third positions respectively. Ms. Sapna Dhawan, Dean, Student Welfare applauded the speakers for their ideas, enthusiasm and initiative taken to articulate their thoughts on a public platform. The whole experience was an enriching one for all the participants,
