

REPORT

HOUSE FUNCTION- CHENAB & GANGES

'The deeper our roots, the taller we stand'

Cultural activities enhance the confidence level of the students and foster teamwork while showcasing the students' talent. In line with the above belief, Chenab and Ganges House of Delhi Public School, Sec 45, Gurgaon organised a cultural extravaganza on Monday, 8th August '22.

The event which was based on the goodness of the Kalpavriksha, the wish-fulfilling tree, commenced with shloka chanting on the magical tree and its powers. This was followed by a documentary on myths, stories and legends around this mythological tree which was seen by the audience with rapt attention. A musical rendition with the flavour of an opera brightened the whole atmosphere and the auditorium reverberated with the applause. The young performers, effortlessly articulated themselves in the art of narration and expression through body movement leaving the audience spell bound.

The activities, 'Through the Lens' containing breath taking videos and pictures of nature with its beauty and 'Let's get Poetsy' in which poetry was given a new dimension through poetry enactment enthralled the audience.

Dressed in colourful and vibrant costumes, the students brought the stage alive with their thought provoking performances based on the theme of saving trees. A street play was enacted on Save Environment, emphasising on the significance of greenery and afforestation.

This was followed by the much awaited and captivating fashion presentation wherein students of classes XI and XII, while emphasising on going organic, showcased interesting and simple drapes with raw muslin, joyously hand painted by them and inspired by the eternal tree and its magnificence.

Dean Student Welfare, Ms Sapna Dhawan, lauded the efforts of the participants and the office bearers for enthusiastically participating and organising the event and urged all to find a little Kalpavriksha within themselves and help to support those in need. This grand event culminated with the vote of thanks by the house captains.

