

REPORT ON SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

JANMASHTAMI

‘Janmashtami is a reminder to live a life of righteousness, humility, and compassion.’

Krishna Janmashtami, or Gokulashtami, commemorates the birth of Lord Krishna. On 21st August 2024, Chenab House students presented a vibrant and inspiring assembly that beautifully captured the cultural and spiritual significance of the festival, emphasizing the timeless teachings of Lord Krishna and their relevance in today’s world.

Students from the Senior Council, Nishika Gupta, Vice House Captain, Satluj House and Kshitij Kataria, MUN Secretary, interacted with the students of the Junior Wing, highlighting the importance of values such as kindness, teamwork and friendship, citing examples from Krishna’s life. The assembly began with a prayer, expressing gratitude for the divine blessings. It was followed by an inspiring skit emphasizing environmental preservation, teamwork, innovation, and the universal theme of friendship. The performance included reflections on Krishna as a timeless role model and living harmoniously with nature. A captivating dance performance mesmerized the audience. The Janmashtami celebration was a remarkable blend of tradition, education, and entertainment, imparting valuable life skills. It fostered unity and goodwill among students.

The assembly concluded with the Headmistress, Junior Wing, Ms. Kanu Chopra, highlighting the significance of embracing truthfulness and honesty, stating that these values are the foundation for gaining respect and attaining success.\

