

International ACAC Conference Report

Date: July 9-11, 2024

Location: Western University, Canada

Attended by: Ms Aditi Misra and Ms Anamika Sethi

The International ACAC (Association for College Admission Counseling) conference provided a comprehensive experience and professional enrichment for school counsellors from around the globe. The event featured a range of sessions aimed at enhancing the skills and knowledge of counsellors. The sessions were tailored to the needs and interests of the school counsellors. The key sessions focused on insights into current trends in college admissions, discussions on changes in application processes, including test-optional policies and guidance on helping students navigate the evolving landscape of higher education.

Networking Fairs

The conference featured several fairs designed to enhance networking among participants:

1. US University Fair:

- Representatives from US universities provided information on their programs.

2. Global University Fair:

- Universities from around the world showcased their offerings.

3. School Counselors Fair:

- A platform for counselors to share best practices and resources.

The International ACAC conference at Western University was a productive and informative event. It offered learning opportunities through the sessions and fostered networking connections through the various fairs.
