‘Learning gives creativity, creativity leads to thinking, thinking provides knowledge and knowledge makes you great. -APJ Abdul Kalam

Delhi Public School, Gurgaon conducted the much awaited second ‘Bagless Day’, on the theme ‘Incredible India: A Celebration of Diversity and Culture, for the students of class VI-VIII, on Saturday, 27th July, 2024, wherein the students participated in a series of engaging activities.

The students participated in a holistic programme that promotes national pride and fosters a sense of connection, culture, and community. From the vibrant Rakhi-making activity to crossword puzzles and quizzes on 'Incredible India', the students were engaged in a comprehensive educational experience. Furthermore, their fascination while watching a documentary on the unsung heroes of India attested to their development of valuable perspectives and profound reflection. The event therefore, took the students on an odyssey of appreciating art, culture, national identity, sustainability, and the value of collaboration.

All these interdisciplinary activities encouraged joyful learning among students. They enjoyed themselves immensely and returned home with a bagful of memories.
