

Report on Dussehra Assembly

'True victory lies not in defeating others but in triumphing over one's own flaws and choosing the path of righteousness.'

We mark the beginning of the festive season and reinforce the values of integrity and righteousness, Satluj House presented a special assembly on Dussehra at Delhi Public School, Gurgaon on 7th October 2024. The event aimed to enlighten students about Lord Rama's victorious battle against Ravana while promoting values like humility, wisdom, courage and determination.

The assembly commenced with a thought followed by a captivating skit focussing on the triumph of good over evil. The audience was enthralled by the students' remarkable performance and enjoyed it thoroughly. The assembly concluded with a mesmerizing dance performance.

The special assembly was a visual treat that left a lasting impression on the viewers. Ms Sapna Dhawan, Dean (Student Welfare) encouraged the students to adopt a positive mindset and lead their lives with righteousness. In her address she emphasized that true victory comes from conquering one's own weaknesses.
