

SCOO NEWS Global Educators Fest 2023

'Phir Se Tod Fod Jod' attended by Ms Pratibha Singh and Ms Anamika Sethi

Date: 10th to 12th August 2023

Venue: Clarks Amer, Jaipur

'Phir Se Tod Fod Jod' conference was conducted by resource persons from ECA-APER (Early Childhood Association and Association for Primary Education and Research). The sessions conducted over two days focused on unlearning, learning, and re-learning various important aspects of early childhood education and its impact on a child's overall growth and development. Emphasis was on the role of educators in fostering a nurturing and stimulating environment for young children.

The conference featured panel discussions and sessions covering a range of topics related to early childhood development. These sessions included discussions on the importance of play, art, dance, and music in learning. Strategies for promoting social-emotional, physical, cognitive, literacy and numeracy development, cultural development, and effective teaching approaches for young children were discussed. The sessions were led by experts in their respective fields, who shared research statistics and practical experiences. Many activities were conducted during the sessions to give hands-on experience to all the participants. Emphasis on implementing the Sanskrit language in early childhood was given. The readiness of 21CLD teachers, schools, and parents was discussed.

The conference provided an opportunity to gain insights from experts, engage in discussions on key issues, and foster collaborations to further enhance the quality of early childhood education.

The conference was a great platform for networking and knowledge-sharing among the participants.
